THOSE PECULIAR JOHNSONS

1 Peter 2:9 "...You are God's peculiar people..."

No one knows whose womb holds the chief! –African Proverb

It is getting much better. That's right. The work has been hard, but things are getting even better.

Miriam Medical Clinics has two new clinicians. That is much better. Our newest additions include Alvin Kingcade, P.A., and Dr. Malik Maasac. With these two additions, Miriam now offers more open clinic dates to provide care without regard for insurance coverage.

Students from several professional health schools do their externships with us, including the disciplines of pharmacy, medicine, and physician assistants.

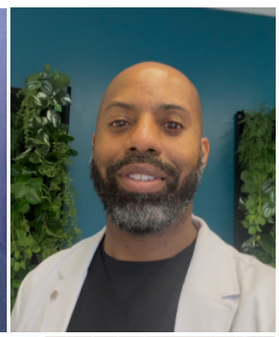

Miriam Medical Clinics continues to engage and educate the community, with CPR training to save lives and teaching on issues of prostate and sexual health.

The Nazarene Narrative continues to make things better, improving cooperation within the body of Christ. This fellowship encourages love and laughter without regard for denomination. Our most recent potluck dinner included over 15 churches, with 10 different denominations. This was a culmination of the recent Retreat to Reaffirm our commitment to Christ and one another.

We have continued our ministry to the incarcerated, providing financial gifts and speaking on health issues within the walls. The men appreciate the time we take to minister to their needs, and the money we give allows them to make phone calls, write letters to their families and friends, and make small purchases from the commissary. Most of them have been behind bars for over 35 years and need help making sense of the years ahead.

I was able, with God's help, to study and pass the board examination. This certification is for another two years and affords me the opportunity to continue to offer services at Miriam Medical.

On the family front, we celebrated 49 years of marriage and spent time this summer, crabbing, playing water games, and having cookouts.

A meal with family including great-grandmom.

Our seven grandchildren left their mark on the swing set, and with God's grace, they will leave a mark for Christ by the lives they live.

Our eldest grandson, Levi, is in Navy ROTC and looks impressive in uniform.

We need your continued support to keep making things better for the people we serve. You can give to Johnsons' ministries, including Miriam Medical Clinics and the Nazarene Narrative, or the Johnsons' ministries undesignated.

Thank you,

Michael and Kay Johnson
